The Local Area

Ardclough, Co. Kildare is a quaint and peaceful village steeped in tranquillity and history. Nearby Lyons Estate boasts a Georgian Mansion set within 16 acres of peaceful grounds and is a real treat whether you want a coffee in stunning surrounds or a Michelin-star meal. William's Grove, set alongside the Grand Canal, provides for peaceful meandering as you enjoy the scenery and wildlife the longest canal in the country presents.

The modern family's everyday requirements are provided for due to its close proximity to the bustling towns of Celbridge, Maynooth & Naas. These towns feature many shops, boutiques, restaurants and pubs together with fantastic schools and a University. The village itself provides a well-regarded primary school while sports lovers of all ages will have no trouble filling up their leisure time in this location.

Nearby leisure facilities include the renowned K Club, Palmerstown House, Ardclough GAA, the Curragh, Punchestown and Naas racecourses and gymnasiums located in each surrounding town. If you are looking for a home in an idyllic village setting and within easy reach of everything that you may need, then Ardclough is for you.

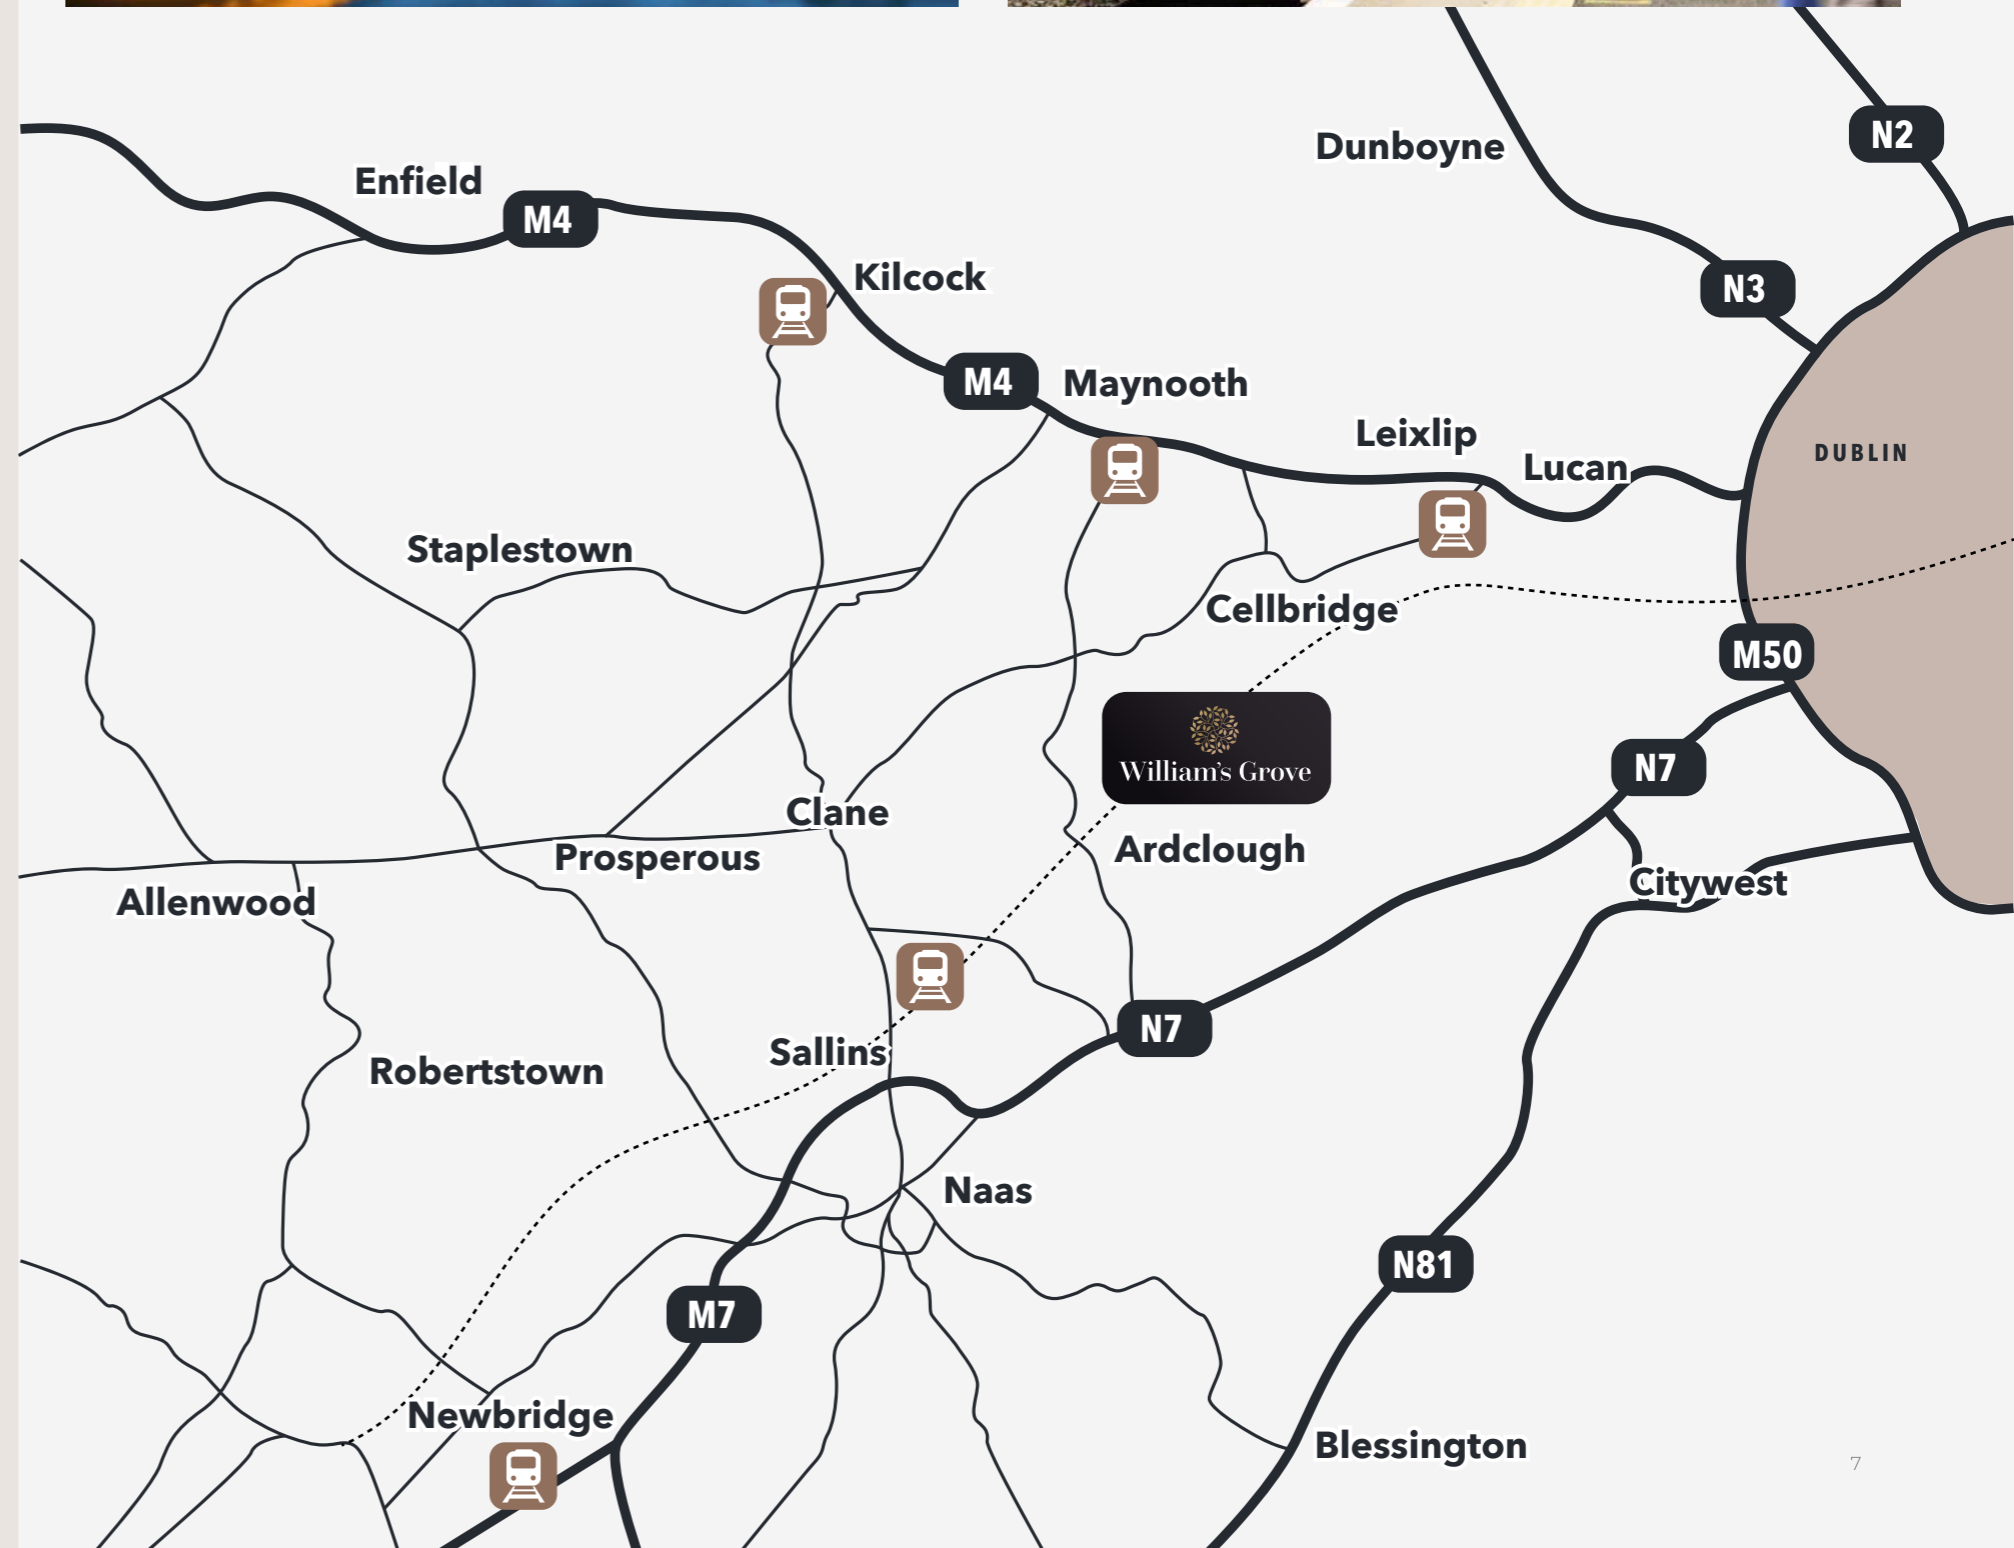

Connectivity
